- (vii) Having audits performed.

Adequate Retention Periods and Security Measures

Scotty keeps data no longer than necessary for realizing the above purposes and furthermore observes the statutory retention periods.

Scotty has taken careful and appropriate measures to secure its systems to prevent unauthorized access to any personal or business data processed by Scotty.

Your rights

If Scotty processes your Personal Data you have (on certain conditions) the right to request access to, rectification and deletion of your Personal Data as well as the right to restrict processing. In addition, you have the right to object to the processing of data and the right to transfer your data.

If you have given Scotty permission to process your Personal Data, you may withdraw your permission at any time. Withdrawing your permission does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on the permission before the time of withdrawal. Finally, you have the right to file a complaint with the Dutch Data Protection Authority, the regulatory authority on privacy (www.autoriteitpersoonsgegevens.nl).

If you have any questions or complaints about the above rights or Scotty's privacy statement, you can contact our Privacy team at privacy@scottytechnologies.com at all times.

Third Parties

Scotty may provide your Personal Data to third parties if necessary for the execution of the purposes listed above. Scotty will provide your Personal Data only to third parties with whom a data processing agreement has been made. In such agreements Scotty will of course lay down the agreements necessary to secure your Personal Data.

In addition, Scotty will provide your Personal Data if required by law or a court order. In other cases, Scotty will never provide and/o sell your Personal Data to third parties without your consent. Your Personal Data will not be provided to third parties for commercial purposes.
